OSD Declassification/Release Instructions on File

Mr. Matthew Baird
Director of Training
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Baird:

At the beginning of each academic year, the Defense Intelligence School conducts a course in the "Organization for National Security" for approximately ninety officer students in the Captain (Lieutenant) -- Major (Lieutenant Commander) range. This course is designed to give the students a background in organization as a basis for further intelligence studies.

It would be greatly appreciated if a member of the Central Intelligence Agency could present, as part of this course, a lecture on "The Intelligence Community and the Central Intelligence Agency." The most fitting date would be Thursday, 12 September 1963 between the hours of 1330 and 1530. It is anticipated that a question and answer period will follow the lecture.

A telephone conversation with [redacted] of the Agency staff has established that he will be available at the time and date above. He has given this lecture in past years and his presentations have been extremely well-received.

If further details are desired, LCDR E.D. ONORATO, USN of the Defense Intelligence School may be contacted on Government Code 142, Extension 391.
